It's 1988, and the annual Christmas Pageant is being held for a local Children's Fund. Sam Evergreen, the charity's PR Director, is organizing the event and has a panel of judges that include Victor Grinch, the Chairman of the Board, for the charity. Competing in the pageant are Timothy Cratchet, a shy young man who yearns to be a star, and Stacie Sugarplum, the prettiest, like most popular girl in town who succeeds at everything she does. A stage mother for another finalist, Gloria Fishbein, is determined to have her son, Herman, win.

The pageant gets underway and the competition is fierce. But there seems to be more drama offstage than on, and jealousy, unrequited love and other secrets bubble up as the pageant goes on. When someone mysteriously dies, the group is left to determine whether it was natural causes, an accident or murder!

This show is family friendly and contains musical numbers. Solve the mystery and win a fabulous prize! You'll Die Laughing!!!

Come kick off your holiday season and enjoy a wonderful dinner and fabulous show at the beautiful Cherokee Ranch & Castle while helping our neighbors in need!
